Chief's Report

Officer Fus announced that she accepted a position with the Wisconsin Department of Justice Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) and will be resigning her position within the Department effective September 10, 2016. PO Fus recently served as an Investigator and School Liaison Officer.

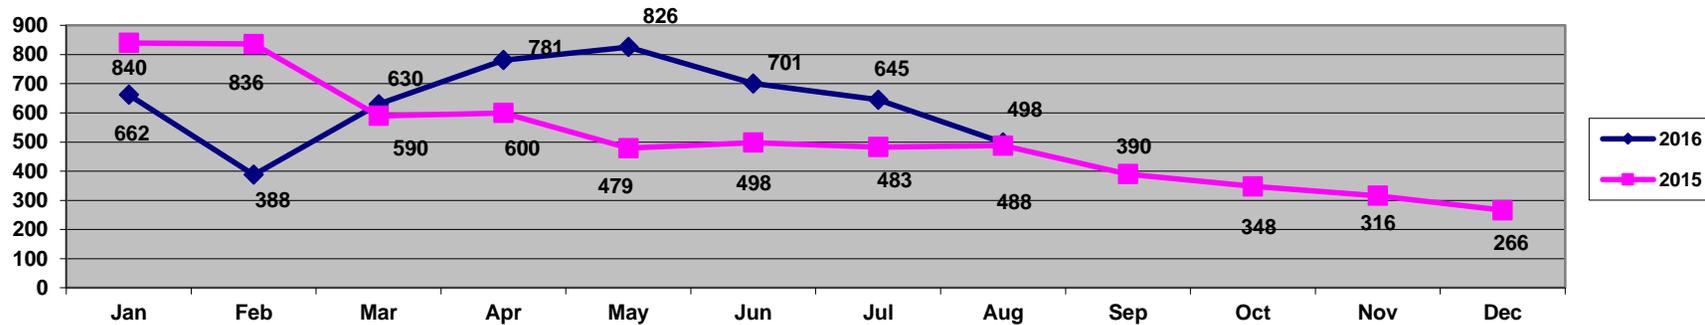

The Department has extended a conditional offer of employment to two police officer candidates. The offers were accepted and the final screening processes will occur in September. We continue to conduct background investigations of additional officer candidates to fill projected vacancies later this year.

Officer in Training (OIT) Craig Wolc resigned his position with the Department effective August 16, 2016. OIT Wolc was struggling with the later phases of the field training program and resigned to pursue other career opportunities.
