

BROWN DEER POLICE DEPARTMENT

NEWS RELEASE

BROWN DEER, WI – The Village of Brown Deer Police Commission is pleased to announce the appointment of Peter Nimmer as Brown Deer’s new Chief of Police. Chief Nimmer’s service with Brown Deer will commence on Wednesday, September 1, 2021.

Chief Nimmer joins the Village of Brown Deer with 23 years of service in law enforcement. He began his law enforcement career in 1998 with the Brown Deer Police Department after proudly serving four years in the United States Marine Corps. Nimmer was a Patrol Officer, Field Training Officer, Trainer, Accreditation Manager and served as Sergeant and Lieutenant before leaving Brown Deer to be hired as Chief of Police for the City of Burlington, WI in 2010. Chief Nimmer furthered his career and was hired as Chief of Police with the Village of Shorewood, WI in 2015.

Chief Nimmer holds a bachelor’s degree in Criminal Justice and a master’s degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee. He is a graduate of the 226th Session of the FBI National Academy and is a Past President of the Wisconsin Chiefs of Police Association and continues to serve on the WCPA Board today. He is also an active member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

Chief Nimmer is currently a board member of the Wisconsin Law Enforcement Accreditation Group and has conducted numerous accreditation assessments across the state. He is an Adjunct Professor at Marquette University where he teaches courses in Police Organization and Administration and was a senior lecturer at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

Leslie Galloway-Sherard, Police Commission President stated “Chief Nimmer brings a wealth of experience and a community-focused approach that will serve the Village well. I want to thank Captain Jonathan Schmitz who served as our Interim Chief for his leadership and hard work.”

“As the Village President and Board Chair for Brown Deer I look forward to beginning this new chapter in the Police Department with Chief Peter Nimmer. I was very impressed with his experience and his desire to return to Brown Deer where his career started. I believe we have so many opportunities for the Village.” - Wanda J. Montgomery, Village of Brown Deer President

Please join us in giving Chief of Police Peter Nimmer a warm welcome home to the Village of Brown Deer!
